

DO NOT WRITE ON! CLASS SET!

Human Impact Test Review

Lesson 1 Write in complete sentences.

1. What are renewable resources and give 3 examples. (pg. 201)
2. What are nonrenewable resources and give 3 examples. (pg. 201)
3. What is a material resource and give 2 examples. (pg. 202)

Lesson 2

4. A region of land that is referred to as a "wild" place is what type of area? (pg. 209)
5. Soil erosion can increase when humans remove trees and other vegetation from an area. What is this process called? (pg. 213)
6. Define deforestation. (pg. 213)
7. What is land degradation? (pg. 212)
8. Explain what urbanization is. (pg. 209)

Lesson 3

9. Which substance is the strongest base? (look at the pic above)
10. What is the pH of pure water (distilled water)? (look at pic above)
11. What is the main purpose of digging a channel or a dam on a river? (pg. 227)
12. Explain what nonpoint-source pollution and give an example. (pg. 222)
13. What is point-source pollution and give an example (pg. 222)
14. What causes acid precipitation? (pg. 222)
15. What government agency sets standards for safe, clean drinking water? (pg. 225)

Lesson 4

16. Define air pollution. (pg. 235)
17. What are particulates? (pg. 235)
18. The ozone layer has been depleted in recent years by chlorine atoms reacting with and destroying ozone molecules. What is the main source of these chlorine atoms? (pg. 234)
19. What are 2 examples of indoor air pollutants? (238-239)

Essay

20. Describe two ways that urbanization can lead to land degradation.
21. Explain the difference between renewable natural resource and a nonrenewable natural resource. Give 2 examples of each.